Excerpt: .Prussian budget contains provisions for four new professorships in the university, including two in medicine, one in hilology, and one in botany. The appropriations for most 0 the laboratories, c., in connection with the university have likewise been notably increased. The Gewerbe-Akademie is to receive an important addition in the shape of a department for the examination of iron, in which the physical and mechanical properties of the various sorts of Prussian iron--unwrought as well as manufactured---can be thorou hly tested, and ofically approved. A similar institute, and t e only one hitherto in Germany, has existed for a number of years at Munich, and has been of great value to the iron industry in South Germany. The lectures of Prof. Du Bois-Reymond on physiology have become so popular that no lecture-room in the university is of sufficient size to accommodate his numerous hearers....
