Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from World s Columbian Catholic Congresses, Vol. 3 of 1: With an Epitome of Church Progress; Embracing Official Proceedings of All the Chicago Catholic Congresses of 1893, Giving in Full the Addresses Delivered by Monsignor Satolli, Apostolic Delegate; His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons; Archbishop Ireland; Archbish The period of the World s Columbian Exposition has been one of pleasure and education. Shortly, according to present indications, not only the exhibits will be returned, but also the magnificent palaces on the shore of the great lake will be destroyed. Those who have enjoyed the privilege of a visit to the wonders of Jackson Park will bear with them a life-long blessing. The millions of our countrymen who have been unable to avail themselves of this great educational exhibition must enrich themselves by such printed accounts as American enterprise may place within their reach. In the name of these many millions we hail with gratitude, not only the volumes descriptive of the Fair in its exhibits, its architecture, and its landscape features, but also the works bearing upon the congresses, and special days at the Fair, for these latter contain the ripest erudition of the Old and New World. The present volume has the worthy aim of giving a wider audience to the Catholic Congress held during the past summer, and of affording sound instruction on that most important subject, Catholic education, through the speeches of Education Day. The guides upon mountains have spoken wisely and well, but save through the instrumentality of such a volume how narrow the audience! The various congresses were watched with interest, attended in large numbers, and reported in a princely manner, but none...
