Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A new work of contemporary adult fiction, The Wedding tells the story of a young South African woman, trapped in an abusive romance by family deceptions and family drama, desperate to escape to relatives and a safer life in Cape Town. Accused by the abusive men in her life of being a sinful woman relationships crumble around her, and as the stakes rise and the threat of domestic violence grows she finds herself in fear for her life. When Mary met Willie du Preez, she thought her dreams had come true. Despite his occasional temper, the idea of abusive men couldn't have been further from her mind. So when Willie proposes, it's an instant yes. But as the anticipated date looms ever closer and family drama puts pressure on the young couple, Mary's ideal life turns into an abusive romance under constant threat of domestic violence. And it isn't just Willie. All around the young woman relationships with her in-laws are tinged with anger and resentment, and when tragedy strikes, the intrigue and family...
