No; I didn t tell him the money value - he d send his valet to find out. - The Captive, Kipling. I. Away back in the days of grand political rallies, of torchlight processions and campaign songs and slogans, the days when men went about decorated with gold or silver beetles and the air was filled with shouts of Remember the crime of seventy-three, and answering yells of American tin, the question of ships began to stir and trouble a few - very few - farsighted men. A little later it took form as a slogan of its own, and the excited gentleman on the cracker barrel would wave his arms and declare that the issues before the American people were imperialism and ship subsidy. When for the last time the American...
