YESTERDAY IS GONE

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A fast moving action thriller 57,000 words Although the story begins in Ireland at the closing stages of WWII, most of the action takes place in 1971 at a time when the Vatican Bank was suspected of being heavily involved in money laundering, and with connections to the mafia. This is also about the time the IRA were becoming active in London. Sean Fitzpatrick was born in County Kerry near the end of WWII the 7th son of a 7th daughter. Tragically, his mother died at his birth and eventually his father, unable to cope with the extra child, agreed to another woman in a neighbouring village, who had lost her own baby the same day; to bring him up. He was raised as Sean McCartney, and unaware of his true parentage. In Chicago, Dan McCartney believed that he had fathered a son unaware that his own son had died shortly after birth. Dan s criminal activity has imprisoned him for a long term, and back home in Ireland on not hearing from him, he is assumed dead. In his early teens, Sean s surrogate mother becomes ill and when she subsequently dies, he discovers the whole truth of his parentage. Left alone in the world he determines to find the brothers he did not know existed who have all moved to England. Confused by his real identity he seeks the comfort, and stability of the Catholic Church. As a newly ordained priest, in 1971 he becomes a curate in St. Patrick s Church, in London s Soho. A twist of fate sees the new priest assisting the victim of a gangland mob shooting in central London. The...
