Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from General Regulations for the Foreign Exhibitors and Commissions 8. The exhibitors will not have to pay the expenses of a boarded floor, or of a closed ceiling, or contribute to the laying out of the adjoining gardens. Exhibitors of objects of fine art, and of those for the Exposition des Amateurs have no charge whatever to pay for space. 9. The chief manager will enter into communication with the railway and steamboat companies of Austria and Hungary, in order to procure reductions of rates for the conveyance of objects for the exhibition. The foreign commissions are also invited to enter into communication with the railway and steamboat companies of their countries for the same purpose, and to communicate by the 1st of May, 1872, to the chief manager, the reductions which they have obtained. The chief manager will then publish all the dates concerning these reductions by the 1st of July, 1872. 10. The exhibition grounds will be considered as a bonded warehouse, and objects which are monopolies in Austria may also be exhibited without...
