Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The creation stories of Australias Aborigines set to music and chant are the songlines that have guided them through inner and outer landscapes for 60,000 years. What guides us today in the West? Those of us who say we follow Jesus of Nazareth point to Scripture as our guide, but what we believe about Scripture and life itself changes everything. We need permission to question our beliefs about our belief to see if the map our songs are singing is taking us anywhere we really want to go. "What good are our beliefs about God if they dont make our lives and relationships sing out loud right herenow? We live at the level of lifesweaty, bloody, beautiful life. If our spirituality cant withstand the intensity of that life, if it cant endure and thrive there, then what good is it? Its not truth, and its not saving or liberating either." As a companion book, Western Songlines picks up where The Fifth Way left off. There is virtually no major concept of Jesus message and teaching that we can take at face value, that we can read as a quot;simplequot; meaning once translated into our own language. But even after we reconsider the deep Hebrew meaning of Jesus words and life, what are the conclusions we should be drawing about our own lives and meaning? Jesus sang the written songlines of his people as the map of his passage through life, but along the Way, he heard his Father singing new songs that he sang to his followers and have now been passed down to us as the written songlines of our time. But Jesus Way...
