Reviews

Merely no terms to spell out. We have read through and i also am confident that i will gonna read yet again again in the future. You will not sense monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you question me).

Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .to the timely and interesting subject: Photographing Outdoor Sports. The monograph is rich in practical details and working methods, covering all the popular outdoor games and sports and will, we are sure, be welcomed by our readers as filling the proverbial long-felt want. The Reaper, Whose name is Death, has been unusually active in photographic fields of late, and we record, with a deep sense of personal loss, the passing of three well-known workers: Henry Lomb, one of the founders of the Bausch Lomb Optical Co., who died at his home in Rochester, N. Y., June 13, in his eightieth year. Captain Lomb's long life was filled with good deeds and public benefactions and he was deservedly beloved by his fellow citizens in all walks of life. Thomas Winfield Pattison, general manager of the American Aristotype Company, who died in New York City, June 21, in his fifty-fourth year. Mr. Pattison was a conspicuous figure at the national and state conventions of the past twenty-five years, and, by his genial personality and indefatigable loyalty to his business interests was probably more widely known and loved than any other man in the photographic fraternity. J. B. Pelgrift, for many years the traveling representative of the Scovill Adams Co., who died at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., June 15. Mr. Pelgrift was identified with the photographic trade for over forty years and made a friend of every man he met in all the years: a...
